WHAT IS CONNECT?

Marion County CONNECT is a quarterly gathering of individuals within Marion County who are interested in economic development. The goal of the gatherings is to build a network of leaders within the area interested in advancing the economy and secondly, to provide those leaders resources to achieve goals. Each quarter the meeting has a different focus area. The gatherings are free to attend. Meetings are held in person to allow for networking.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

You can sign up for notifications about meetings at marioncountyiowa.gov under the development commission header. The meeting is a public meeting, but of special interest to elected officials, local government managers, businesses, utilities, education and local community organizations.
